Proverbs 3:6 KJV

"In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths."

INSTRUCTIONS

This Prompt Mind Map is a visual brainstorming tool that organizes information around goal planning for a graduate regardless of age.

For a graduate, it acts as a "Prayer Map" to visually lay out your future concerns, dreams, and spiritual goals in one interconnected view.

How to Use the Future Paths Mind Map

Center Your Focus: Start by writing "My Future Path" or a specific graduation goal in the center of the page.

Branch Out by Category: Create main branches for different areas of life, such as "Finances," "Health," and "Bible Study"

Add Specific Tasks: Under the "Finances" branch, you might add sub-branches for a "First Fruits" budget or "Charitable Giving".

INSTRUCTIONS CONTINUED

Incorporate Prayer: As you identify a path or goal, immediately link it to an intercessory prayer list for that specific area.

Scripture Anchoring: Use the margins or empty spaces to write "Peace of God" verses or "Wisdom for the Journey" from Proverbs to ground each branch in the Word.

Why Use a Mind Map?

Holistic Vision: It allows a graduate to see how their physical activity, mental health, and spiritual life are all connected as a "Body is a Temple".

Reduces Overwhelment: Breaking a big transition into smaller "Future Paths" makes the next steps feel achievable rather than daunting.

Interactive Prayer: It transforms a static to-do list into an active "Prayer and Gratitude" journal where God's guidance is sought for every moving part of your life.

"Your future looks bright."

"Lord, I place these visions and goals in Your hands. Proverbs 16:9 reminds me that while I can plan my course, You establish my steps. If any of these goals do not align with Your will for my life redirect me. Open the right doors, close the wrong ones, and give me the peace to trust Your timing. In Jesus Christ's name I pray, Amen."

IDEAS TO FILL IN YOUR MIND MAP

The Primary Branches are from the center, Draw main "paths" ( lines) leading to key areas of your life:

Path of Provision (Finances & Career) Monthly To-Do: List, immediate job search or onboarding tasks.

First Fruits: A small sub-bubble for tithing and charitable giving goals. A space to write one long-term savings goal.

Stewardship (Wellness). The Body is a Temple: A section for physical activity and hydration goals/ challenges.

Goals and Scripture: Calm in the Storm: A spot for a "Peace of God" verse to acknowledge God's will.

Path of Connection (Community & Service) Intercessory Prayer: Branches for family, mentors, and future colleagues. Acts of Kindness: volunteering.

Networking: (mentor) professional association for this new season.

Growth (Spiritual Life) A section for specific Books of the Bible to study (like Proverbs or John). A daily checklist for spiritual protection. Gratitude journal: Small leaves or branches to jot down daily wins.
